DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The preliminary amendment submitted on 25 April 2005 has been entered.

Claims 1-16 are currently pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 2-4, 11-14 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 2-4 the phrase "the proportion" lacks proper antecedent basis.

In claim 11 the phrase "in particular" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation following the phrase is part of the claimed invention and the scope of the claim is unascertainable.

In claim 12 the phrase "the dried mixture" lacks proper antecedent basis.

In claim 13 the phrases "the production" and "the addition" lack proper antecedent basis.

Claim 16 provides for the use of the setting and curing accelerator as claimed in claim 1, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass.

Art Unit: 1755

A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical

Art Unit: 1755

Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000.

Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

6. Claims 1-10 and 13-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 01/42165 A2.

The reference teaches, on page 1, lines 21 - page 2-line 6 and page 3, lines 7-22 and example 5, an alkali-free accelerator for sprayed concrete which is prepared by dissolving aluminum sulphate in water and amorphous aluminum hydroxide in water optionally containing amine, and optionally adding at least one stabilizer, selected from hydroxycarboxylic acids and phosphoric acids and non-alkaline salts thereof, and at least one defoaming agent.

The instant claims are met by the reference.

7. Claims 1-10 and 13-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by WO 03/029163 A2.

The reference teaches, on page 2, line 5 - page 3, line 8; page 4, line 18 - page 5, line 2, and page 8, lines 1-4 an alkali-free accelerator for use with spray-applied cementitious compositions such as concrete and mortar is the reaction product in aqueous medium of amorphous aluminum hydroxide, aluminum sulphate, formic acid and phosphoric acid.

Art Unit: 1755

The instant claims are met by the reference.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 11-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO 01/42165 A2 and WO 03/029163 A2.

The references were discussed previously.

The instant claims are obvious over the references. While the reference does not recite that the accelerator is dried this is an obvious modification of the reference as one of ordinary skill in the art would have found it obvious to produce a dried composition if one was needed or desired without producing any unexpected results absent evidence showing otherwise as it is known in the art that one may dry an aqueous composition in order to increase its shelf life and for ease in transportation to the jobsite. One of ordinary skill in the art would then find it obvious to rehydrate the dried mixture before incorporation into the hydraulic binder absent evidence showing otherwise.
